What is the SCTC Theatre Studio?

The SCTC Theatre Studio was designed to be an affordable way for Pre-Schoolers, Children and Teens to get involved with theatre. Whether you just want to dabble onstage or prepare for a career in the performing arts, we have something to suit you!

Why choose the SCTC Theatre Studio?

We could give you all the statistics about why theatre training is good for children- it raises emotional IQ, helps build confidence, teaches children healthy ways to connect with and express their emotions, etc, etc, etc. All those things are true. We could also mention how affordable our program is as well as our scholarships for qualified students. Those things are true too, But the main reason you should choose the SCTC Theatre Studio is we believe that quality theatre is fun! We will work hard, do great theatre, and have fun doing it!

SCTC Minis- PreSchool and Kindergarten

SCTC Minis is an introduction to the World of Theatre through a young child's eyes. These classes focus on Acting, Singing, Dancing and Theatre Vocabulary. These areas help to teach basic performance techniques, attention skills, teamwork, fine and gross motor skill development, and beginning musicality.
